

Did you know?

- The 2019 CalSTRS “Retirement Progress Report” is now available. Click here for more details.
- Bereavement leave (4-6 days, depending on traveling distance) and imminent death leave (2 days) are available for full-time faculty without any deduction from sick leave, should faculty find themselves in these unfortunate circumstances. For more information and a complete list of applicable family members, see 6.6 and 6.10.
- Your department representative should have sent to your off-campus email a pre-negotiations survey to complete. If they have not, please ask them about it.
- Faculty who did not complete their online teaching certification in June and are scheduled to teach online courses this winter and/or spring are required to complete LBCC’s Teach Online Series 3.0 (TOS) per our contract. The certification deadline for faculty scheduled to teach winter online courses is October 15th. Faculty scheduled to teach online courses in spring, need to complete this training by October 25th. Please log on here. Email Melvin Cobb with any questions, mcobb@lbcc.edu.

Upcoming Events:

- LBCCFA Representative Council Meeting: Fri., Oct. 11, 10 AM, room T-2312 (LAC). All LBCCFA members are welcome to attend.
- LBCC Board of Trustees Meeting: Wed., Oct. 23, 5:30 PM, room T-1100 (LAC).

This week in labor history:

- On September 23rd, 2002, California Governor Gray Davis made history by signing into law the first-ever state paid-family-leave bill in the U.S. To learn more about the history and politics surrounding the bill, check out the book Unfinished Business: Paid Family Leave in California and the Future of

U.S. Work-Family Policy, by sociologists Ruth Milkman and Eileen Applebaum.

Respectfully,

Your LBCCFA Executive Board

follow LBCCFA on Twitter @LBCCfaculty LBCCFA email: ccalbccoffice@gmail.com